

EYES ON PROGRESS

The latest news and updates from The Progress Center

MAUREEN BILODEAU, Co-Executive Director
Director of Children's Services and Case Management
maureenbilodeau@progresscentermaine.org

ERIC ROSS, Co-Executive Director
Director of Finance and Operations
ericross@progresscentermaine.org

AMANDA SHEA
Director of Human Resources
amandashea@progresscentermaine.org

KATIE CORLISS
Director of Home & Community Based Services
katiecorliss@progresscentermaine.org

Reminders & Upcoming Events

Annual Board Meeting: 12/4 at 35 Cottage Street

Christmas for Kids and Teens: Donations of unwrapped, new gifts can be dropped off at 5 Fore Street in Oxford until 12/11. Gifts will be delivered to the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce on Wed, 12/12.

TPC offices are closed on Wednesday, December 25th.

February 2025: Murder Mystery Fundraiser

LIVES UNLIMITED TRAVEL INDEPENDENCE

The Lives Unlimited group went to the Brunswick Visitor Center today. They were shown how to use the Amtrak Downeaster train system and how to purchase tickets using the automated ticketing system.

Thanksgiving Baskets Prepped and Ready

Thanksgiving baskets were delivered to local families this week. The Progress Center is grateful for the support it has received over the past 44 years and strives to pay that kindness forward every day.

Thanksgiving Basket Drawing Winners

A huge "THANK-YOU" to everyone who donated food and helped make our TPC Thanksgiving Food Basket donation a success!! Six families received a food basket and your help and support made that happen!! Everyone who donated names were entered into a drawing. "Congratulations" to Jess Davie for winning a $25.00 gift card to Wal-Mart and Deb Peaco for winning a $25.00 gift card to Hannaford!!!

MY BLOODY VALENTINE

Murder Mystery Dinner

To Benefit The Progress Center Get Your Tickets Today

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 6-8 PM
THE VICTORIAN ON MAIN
230 MAIN STREET NORWAY, ME 04268

DINNER, DRINKS, DREAD...

Love is in the air... but so is suspense, betrayal, and bloodshed. Join us this Valentine's Day for an unforgettable evening of secrets and scandal at our Bloody Valentine Murder Mystery Dinner! Whether you're here for romance, revenge, or just a thrill, prepare yourself for an evening filled with twists and turns.

Drape yourself in Valentine's elegance – but beware, bloodstains are always in style. Glamorous evening attire is encouraged, as well as a hint of mystery. Think reds, blacks, and maybe a splash of something sinister.

Will you be a cold-blooded killer, a hopeless romantic, or the detective who solves it all? Get ready to put your heart on the line—and maybe even your life!

We have 50 seats available for this event. Help us sell all of the tickets by going to TPC's Facebook page and sharing the event details with all of your friends and family!

BUY TICKETS: HERE OR SCAN HERE:

SAVE THE DATES YOUTH TRANSITION PLANNING SERIES

Brought to you by Maureen Biloiseau, Co-Executive Director of The Progress Center

WHAT WILL YOUR CHILD'S FUTURE LOOK LIKE? START PLANNING TODAY!

Youth in Maine receiving special education services are entitled to transition support. Planning for the future can feel overwhelming, but you don't have to navigate that journey alone.

DAY 1
12/5 5PM

CASE MANAGEMENT

Julia Herrick and Maureen Biloiseau will share how case management services can help find vital services like work assistance, skills training, and social engagement opportunities.

DAY 2
1/9 5PM

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Phil Niles, will share how TPC tailors services to the participant's specific needs, including skill development and access to community activities.

DAY 3
2/13 5PM

EMPLOYMENT SUPPORT

Katie Corliss and Meagan Foster, will outline Maine's work support services available to help with job preparation, career planning, and on-the-job support.

DAY 4
3/13 5PM

RESIDENTIAL SUPPORT

Renee Woodley and Sarah Rosenberg will share Maine's 3 most common residential services: in-home, shared living, and residential services.

DAY 5
4/10 5PM

FAQ

Join our guest panel as they share their personal experiences and insights, and get ready to have all your questions answered. Don't miss this opportunity to learn and engage!

SCAN ME

Register online to reserve your spot, space is limited: progresscentermaine.org

5-day informational series focusing on different support services options to help guide parents and families as they start their youth transition planning journey.

progresscentermaine.org
facebook.com/theprogresscentermaine

207-743-8049 | TTY 7-1-1

5 Fore St., Oxford, ME 04270

35 Cottage St., Norway, ME 04268

300 Portland Rd., Bridgton, ME 04009